What is the NAMI Family Support Group Program?

NAMI Family Support Groups are free, confidential and safe groups of families helping other families who have a loved one living with mental health challenges. In NAMI Family Support Groups, families join a caring group of individuals helping one another by utilizing their collective lived experiences and learned wisdom. Family member can achieve a renewed sense of hope for their loved one and themselves. The group is led by NAMI trained family members.

NAMI SE IN, the National Alliance on Mental Illness of Southeast IN, offers its NAMI Family Support Group the first Wednesday of every month, 6:30 PM to 8 PM, at the Aurora Recreation Community Center (ARCC), Activity Rm, 404 Green Blvd, Aurora, IN. Entrance in back.

Participant Perspectives

“Before coming to the support group, we had never spoken about mental illness to neighbors, friends and often not even to our relatives.”

“NAMI Family Support Group really works and it makes the group experience even better.”

“I just attended my first NAMI Family Support Group and the facilitators and the group experience was just the kind of support I was seeking at this time.”
